EVER RISING DANCE DATA PROTECTION AND GDPR POLICY

Ever Rising Dance is committed to protecting the rights and freedoms of individuals with the respect to the processing the personal data of our students, parents/carers, self-employed teachers, visitors and volunteers. This policy sets out procedures for the use, storage and access to confidential information.

Principal, Emily Royle, is the data protection officer and is happy to receive any questions you may have regarding the collection and storage of your data.

What, why and how we collect, store and use your personal information

As a dance school, Ever Rising Dance needs students/parents/carers full names, addresses, phone numbers, email addresses, important medical information, relevant SEND information and emergency contact details such as emergency phone number, name and relationship to the student.

Data is held for any teachers working at Ever Rising Dance including full names, addresses, email addresses, phone number, relevant qualifications and certificates, bank details for payment and an up-to-date and valid DBS. Volunteers and Chaperones will also need to hold an up-to-date DBS and Chaperone Licence. Date of Birth, National Insurance Number, Photo ID and proof of eligibility to work within the UK may also be required. DBS numbers and date issued are also held securely.

Under GDPR guidelines Special Category Data required to be obtained includes, but is not limited to health and medical information and accident report forms. This information is required for the safety of students participating in dance classes, shows, exams, trips and other performances. This information will be shared with the relevant teachers if there is a legitimate interest in sharing this information, for example, if a student had any allergies that the teachers need to be aware of.

Ever Rising Dance obtains all personal data on the lawful basis of legitimate interest. It is necessary to collect personal details of students/parents/carers of those students under the age of 18 for their protection and safety. The legal basis for processing data will be identified and documented. The processing of data may be undertaken by Ever Rising Dance staff and chaperones, where the sharing of personal data has been consented to and complies with GDPR.

Personal Information will be used for:

- Registers to monitor attendance, health and safety and safeguarding reasons.
- For invoicing.
- Communication with existing customers through e-newsletters, dance school emails and information for shows, exams, trips etc.

Photographs, videos and personal information of students dance work may be used for the purposes of advertisement, services, news but also for training and choreography purposes. This may be through the means of email, website or social media (by consent). Specific consent is required to give us permission to take and use photographs/videos/names of individuals participating in classes, performances, workshops, events for marketing, advertising and promotional purposes.

Anybody teaching for Ever Rising Dance who requires to obtain any relevant data about any student will be required to read this Data Protection Policy.

Stamford Park Trust, who we hire the venue from also require a copy of any accident report forms filled out on their venue for their 'records of accidents occurred at our venues'.

The Right Of Access

Individuals have the right to access your personal data at any time. You have the right to ask for data to be updated, removed or erased if requested, this will be actioned as soon as possible (within the legal requirement of 30 days), provided there are no legal reasons preventing us from doing so. Please note that certain information must be retained for differing periods of time (e.g. accident report forms, child protection records and staff records). It is ultimately the responsibility of the individual to notify us of any changes to your personal data or sensitive data, and this can be done at any time via emailing everrisingdance@outlook.com or by completing a new registration form.

Ever Rising Dance will at times require certain personal and sensitive data to be transferred to GDPR compliant third parties. This includes but is not limited to performance organisers, insurance companies, uniform and costume providers, examination boards, HMRC, local authorities in instance of obtaining chaperone and other performance related licences.

Information may be shared with a third party without consent where:

- There is a perceived risk to life; or
- There is perceived likelihood of harm.
- There is a statutory requirement.

We have a duty to inform Social Services and/or the Police if we believe someone is being neglected or abused, or at immediate risk of harm resulting from neglect or abuse. Teachers may at times be required to access or process data. Copies of this Data Protection and GPDR Policy must be read, understood and signed by all self-employed teachers. Staff will make every effort to keep data secure when they are in possession of it and by storing data in lockable filing cabinets or with the use of strong passwords on phones and computers. Teachers are also data subjects and as individuals are required to consent to the retention and use of their personal data for their employment. They have the right to obtain, update, remove or erase any information held by Ever Rising Dance about themselves as they so wish.

Firewall and virus checking software will be installed on computers owned by Ever Rising Dance to keep them protected as far as is possible. Mobile phones with internet access must also be regularly updated and protected with passwords. Regular back- ups of information must be made by Ever Rising Dance so that the loss of a computer does not mean a loss of all information. All personal data will be securely removed from old computers before they are disposed of.

Emails will only be sent only to the intended recipient and emails will be sent using (BCC) blind carbon copy when sending to more than one recipient. Any paper waste containing sensitive and confidential information will be shredded after use.

In the unlikely event of a data breach, Emily Royle will inform individuals and contact the Information Commissioners Office (ICO) within 72 hours of the breach being realised. We will work quickly with the necessary bodies to resolve the problem.

Consent

No data will be processed until consent has been obtained. Consent is given through the completion and signing of registration form. This is how all necessary personal data and sensitive data is obtained by Ever Rising Dance.

Formal consent is required through the completion and signing of these forms. Paper and electronic copies of these forms will be stored securely for appropriate lengths of times and reviewed at least annually or as required. Parental consent is required for any child under the age of 18. Withdrawal of consent should be sent in writing to the principal Emily Royle at everrisingdance@outlook.com .
